Two for the Price of One!! Two Apartments one second floor and one top floor, one is ready to just move in and the second one has the distribution laid out ready for the accommodation at the taste of the new owner. Would suit two families or a builder looking for a home and a rental investment. The two bedroom Apartment on second floor has a rustic feel and has lots of light being served by an internal patio full of plants. Situated on a quiet street close to the heart of the thriving market Town of Pego with all facilities such as shops, medical centre, schools, Swimming Pool all within walking distance. A great location and a great opportunity for someone with the ability to see the full potential. Buy one to live in and reform the other as a rental investment or two families who want to be together yet still have their independence. At a price that is amazing!
